Pageant Wardrobe and Supplies Needed

These items are basic items needed to compete in the pageant and are not the only things you can wear or use. I just wanted the contestants to have a general idea of the basics that are needed.

- Black shorts (no spandex)
- Low profile tennis shoes (i.e., Keds or Vans)
- 2 Piece Interview suit (No pant suits) or Business Dress
- Heels and pantyhose for interview
- One piece pageant swimsuit(No cut outs)
- Taupe heels for swimsuit
- Heels for evening gown if you do not want to wear your taupe heels.
- Evening gown (No two-piece dresses that show your mid-section, splits in skirt of dress can be no further than 4 inches above the middle of the knee, open backed dresses must stop at your natural waistline)
- Spray adhesive or Firm grip for swimsuit (I highly recommend not using roll on adhesive, it comes out too thick and will show and sometimes stain your swimsuit)
- Duct tape, double sided tape, curling/flat irons, bobby pins, safety-pins, hair spray, make-up for touch ups, etc. Anything you may need for your wardrobe, hair and face to fit and look proper for competition.

* A t-shirt will be provided to all contestants for them to wear for contestant introductions that they will wear with the black shorts and low-profile tennis shoes. All pageant wardrobe and your speech must be approved by the pageant director before pageant day. Wardrobe will be approved based on State Pageant guidelines.

* Parents, friends, hair and make-up stylist will NOT be allowed in the trailers at any time. Once the pageant has started all individuals that are not a contestant or part of the pageant crew must leave the backstage area and cannot return until after the pageant is over.
